

Sip Award-Winning Wine And Spend The Night At Abeja Winery And Inn In Washington

If you've lived in Washington longer than about five minutes or you're a big fan of drinking wine, you already know that Walla Walla is an incredible local destination. Recently voted America's Best Wine Region in USA Today, it's a beautiful place to visit and sip award-winning vino, feast on mouthwatering cuisine, and enjoy a slower pace of life while still having access to big-city amenities.

But if you're looking for a more laid back and relaxing getaway where you can have all of those things without leaving the property, you'll love Abeja Winery & Inn.

You'll find the tranquil, rural Abeja property on Mill Creek Road on the outskirts of the city, in the foothills of the Blue Mountains.

management / TripAdvisor

The property is protected by a large gate (don't worry, guests get the code), and then you'll cruise down a tree of tunnels to your destination.

When the Harrisons found this property, it captured their hearts. They committed to restoring the farmstead and turning it into a unique local destination.

management / TripAdvisor

And now, Abeja is far more than a vineyard and winery. It's an event space where weddings and milestone celebrations are held (when conditions allow), and a bed & breakfast with some rather unique overnight accommodations.

The wine itself is phenomenal, and the list includes both reds and whites.

Abeja

Not only have they succeeded at producing a World Class Cabernet as they had hoped, many of their other wines have won awards as well.

When the weather allows, you can enjoy your wine, breakfast, or some snacks at a peaceful patio table that overlooks the creek below...

Dan Sundgren / Google

...or just grab your glass of vino and stroll through the gardens.

Dan Sundgren / Google

Abeja means bee in Spanish, and this property was named not only for the many wonderful employees ("worker bees") who work hard to keep things looking pristine but the actual bees that flock to the lavender in the garden when it's in season.

Want to spend the night? The Inn at Abeja can host you in a lavish suite, the massive farmhouse, or a cozy cottage.

management / TripAdvisor

This is the Edison House, a 516-square-foot bungalow perfect for two.

Did we mention your stay comes with a huge, delicious gourmet breakfast every morning?

Abeja

Wine and fascinating local history aside, this is one of the best parts of staying here.

Visit Abeja the next time you're in Walla Walla, either for an overnight stay or a wine tasting.

Abeja

Actually, if you stay, you get both — guests of the inn are treated to two full bottles of wine upon arrival and given a complimentary tasting.

Are you celebrating an anniversary, special occasion, or just need a getaway? Check out Abeja's beautiful accommodations here.

Address: 2014 Mill Creek Rd, Walla Walla, WA 99362, USA