

HOME ARTICLES MULTIMEDIA MAPS CELLAR WATCH DELECTABLE EVENTS TOOLS - YOUR SAY

Browse using the new Vinous website now. Launch ightarrow

		(Hover for Commentary)					Drinking
•	Vintage	Producer	Name	Tasting Notes	Score	Author	Window
□ ☆ More	2020 Information	Abeja 1 →	Chardonnay Washington State	The 2020 Chardonnay Washington State shows beautiful range and finesse from this warm vintage. Baking-spice-laced challah bread and banana tones meld with a rich mouthfeel and really gratifying length on the palate. The veil of tension holds everything brilliantly in place. Enjoy this beautiful wine over the next seven years. Owen Bargreen	92	Owen Bargreen	2021 - 2028
□ ☆ More	2019 Information	Abeja 1 →	Merlot	The 100% varietal 2019 Merlot Columbia Valley is a gorgeous effort by the Wampfler winemaking team. A generous texture greets you as layers of kirsch, mocha, tar and anise meld nicely on the palate. Finishing long, this outstanding effort is already great to consume right now and will provide drinking enjoyment for at least another decade. Owen Bargreen	93	Owen Bargreen	2021 - 2033
□ ☆ More	2019 Information	Abeja n →	Syrah Walla Walla Valley	The 2019 Syrah Walla Walla Valley is a relatively limited production bottling that is already beautifully evolved. Dark cherry and toasty oak mark the nose, alongside shades of black licorice and fresh sage. Medium-bodied and fresh, with salty undertones. Enjoy this beautiful wine over the next eight years. Owen Bargreen	92	Owen Bargreen	2021 - 2029
□ ☆ More	2018	Abeja n →	Cabernet Sauvignon Heather Hill	The 100% varietal 2018 Cabernet Sauvignon Heather Hill is a killer effort by the Wampflers. Quite dark in the glass, it exudes class, presenting anise and black currant tones alongside tilled soil and suggestions of mocha on the nose. The palate is exceedingly well-balanced, offering salty undertones that combine with a brilliant core of dark fruits and chocolate and sagebrush undercurrents. Fantastic to savor even so young, this is a brilliant, age-worthy effort that will captivate the senses for many years to come. Enjoy over the next 15-plus years. — Owen Bargreen	94	Owen Bargreen	2021 - 2038
□ ☆ More	2018 Information	Abeja n →	Cabernet Sauvignon	Deep and brooding once in the glass, the 2018 Cabernet Sauvignon Columbia Valley deftly showcases this outstanding vintage, as the team at Abeja has chosen to blend in 11% Merlot and a splash of Cabernet Franc to this opulent wine. The oak treatment frames this nicely, harnessing the core of full-bodied dark fruits and sagebrush tones. Delightful now for its combination of weight and tension, this outstanding Columbia Valley Cabernet Sauvignon has a long way to go in the cellar. — Owen Bargreen	93	Owen Bargreen	2021 - 2035