2014 Abeja Merlot Columbia Valley

91 Points - Wine Enthusiast “The aromas bring notes of dried herb, vanilla bean, wood spice and black cherry. The flavors are rich and luscious, supported by plump ripe tannins. The finish lingers.”

90 Points - The Wine Advocate “The 2014 Columbia Valley Merlot is a ripe, black fruit, plum, leafy herbs and mineral-scented effort that has medium to full-bodied richness, moderate mid-palate depth and tons of upfront charm. It's going to drink nicely through 2024.”
